The Renewable Energy Award

This award is open to all companies that are engaged in the provision of renewable energy supplies and those firms that have developed new and innovative technologies which make possible the generation of energy in a more efficient and sustainable way. Entrants need to provide a statement of up to 800 words including a 250 word statement on why you deserve to win this award and include photographs to illustrate highlighted projects or innovations. Please provide this information on no more than four pages of A4 (this entry form will not be counted in the limit). Please provide two copies of all entry material including the entry form.

JUDGING CRITERIA

In your submission please provide information on the following points:

- Summarise why your company deserves to win this award in 2010.
- Provide two examples of where your products or services tangibly improved the production and distribution of energy supply.
- Please provide evidence of your company's strategy and activities to promote sustainability within your organisation.
- Are you a member of any organisation or association that promotes renewable energy, and sustainable and responsible business practices?
- Do you have specific management with responsibility for the development of sustainable supply chain for your products or services: what are their key targets and how do they measure your company's performance?
- Have you introduced any new innovations that make possible the generation and supply of energy in a more efficient and sustained way in the last 12 months?
- Outline any R&D programmes aimed at improving the performance and specification of your products and services
- Explain your company's approach to training.
- Do you have a long term target for your production and/or supply of energy products - how do you plan to achieve that target and by when?
- What strategic steps has your company taken to sustain or develop its existing business over the next 12 months?

Essential tips for a successful entry

- A successful application must address all of the points above to be considered.
- Where we have asked for specific information use headings to highlight your answers to specific questions.
- Concentrate on facts that can be substantiated.
- Include information on your exceptional successes during the year such as business innovations or techniques that have reaped significant benefits.
- You can use bullet points, charts and photographs in your submission. Photographs are particularly important for the judges to be able to see your projects or innovations.
- Additional information will not be forwarded to the judges unless specifically requested.
- Please provide us with two copies of all entry material including the entry form. If you are shortlisted we will need additional copies and we will contact you in this instance.
